JUDGE LINDSAY TO LECTURE AT Y. M. C. A.

Owing to the absence of commercial colleges in Honolulu, the Y. M. C. A. is doing splendid work in this direction, and work that is appreciated because it is so urgently needed. The second term opens on Jan. 3, 1910. One of the special features of this term will be a course of lectures on commercial law, to be delivered by Judge Alexander Lindsay. These lectures will be given Tuesday evenings, beginning Jan. 12. Judge Lindsay will take up, contracts, agency, partnerships, bills and notes, together with a "question box" at the beginning of each lecture. The present large enrollment indicates very clearly what opportunities for instructing the youth of Honolulu await the Y. M. C. A. when their new building is completed. Plans for this new building give great promise and facility for educational work and it is hoped that a school of four hundred students eventually will be established.

The total number of different students enrolled up to the end of last term was 170. The present enrollment by classes is 209. An afternoon class for street car conductors and motor-men, who work nights, has been started and some nine rapid transit employees are taking a course in arithmetic and English, under the instruction of Harold S. Clark.

A course in English, arithmetic, penmanship, spelling, history and geography has been started for employed boys. This will be under the guidance of B. E. Porter and E. B. Blanchard. Already 25 boys have signified their intention of taking the above subjects when the term opens on Monday.

Following is a complete list of the regular Y. M. C. A. classes together with the names of the instructors and the number of enrolled students: Book-keeping, 43 enrolled, instructor J. C. Anderson. Short-hand, 27 enrolled, instructors C. H. Medcalf and Edmund P. Melanphy. The system taught will be Gregg shorthand. Typewriting, 22 have enrolled to take the touch system, which will be taught by Edmund P. Melanphy. Mechanical and architectural drawing will be in the hands of L. C. Woodman who has enrolled 24 students. J. E. Higgins will teach English and has 29 students to commence with on Monday. Mathematics, including algebra, arithmetic and geometry will be in charge of R. C. Severance who has 30 pupils enrolled.

Practically all these classes will be divided into two or more divisions on account of the large enrollment. This course of instruction should prove a boon to Honolulu, seeing that there is no regular commercial college established here.

THE TWO JAPANESE schooners, the Sakai Maru and No. 2 Kinsei Maru, captured by United States revenue cutters in Bering sea within the three mile limit of the Pribilof islands and confiscated as seal poachers, will be sold by the United States marshal at Unalakleet on April 12 next to the highest bidder. When captured the schooners had their hulls painted white and were adorned with paper mache yards and funnels to make them resemble the vessels of the cutter fleet. Under cover of the fog they slipped in near the seal rookeries. With the vessels will be sold their gear and ammunition and guns, as well as 416 seal skins with the Kinsei and 244 seal skins with the Sakai.

of any such Committee failing or neglecting to so pass upon any such matters, or to make any recommendation in regard thereto, the Board may thereupon act.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That no payments under this Resolution be incurred in any month in excess of the monthly pro rata sums herein authorized.

FORT SHAFTER NEWS

One non-commissioned officer from each company was appointed to meet and act as sub-committee to submit in writing recommendations as to operations of Post Exchange and recommend any changes desired. They will meet at reading room Post Exchange building December 31st at 1 o'clock or as soon thereafter as practicable.

Near Runaway. The wagon of the Sanitary Steam Laundry was standing on the main company street at Fort Shafter Friday morning and the team decided that running was better than standing so a brave start was made and what might have been a sad accident was narrowly averted as a soldier soon had the team caught and under control.

Master. The usual monthly muster and review was held at 9 o'clock Friday December 31st. The non-commissioned staff fell in with the battalion and passed review. This was unusual as generally the staff is mustered before time for the battalion to be mustered. The muster of the battalion was in garrison uniform and equipments. The Quartermaster's wagons and teams were inspected and found in good condition.

Sergeant Demore Company H 20th Infantry was released from the post hospital and returned to Company H for duty Friday morning.

Students Shoot. The students of the Kamehameha school were again having target practice on the Fort Shafter target range Friday morning. This is the second day of their practice as the rain caused a delay of two days.

Long Time Ill. Private Corwin 159th Company C. A. C. who has been under treatment at the Fort Shafter post hospital since October 21st, 1909, was sent to Fort Ruger December 24 to resume his duty with his company.

There are yet left two men of the 159th Company C. A. C. at the Fort Shafter hospital both under further observation and treatment.

Private John Rents who has been in the hospital at this place for more than a month was released and sent to his company. The 159th C. A. C. at Fort Ruger December 29th, one man from the 159th company at Fort Ruger is yet at Fort Shafter for further treatment.

Another hog from the pen of Company G was butchered Friday morning.

Taking Lay Off. Sergeant Simons Company F 20th Infantry who a short time ago was honorably discharged from Company F and reenlisted in the same company applied for a furlough for one month which was granted. Taking effect January 1st, 1910 Private Long Company F 20th Infantry who was discharged and reenlisted the same dates as Sergeant Simons has been granted a pass for one week taking effect December 30th, 1909. Both will enjoy their leave of absence in Honolulu.

Every afternoon there are many of the boys at the gymnasium taking the daily exercise as there has been no drill this week and therefore the gym is used more than usual.

Private Berger Company G 20th Infantry was released from the Fort Shafter post hospital Thursday. He has been in the hospital for several days receiving treatment for his eyes as they were effected through an accident while at the school for baking at Presidio of San Francisco, Cal.

He is reported fit for duty and will as before his illness continue his duty as private with Company G.

Private Schwynoch Company H 20th Infantry was admitted to the post hospital Thursday. While handling a piece of glass Thursday morning he in some way cut his hand very badly.

Bowling. At the bowling alleys was several of the boys Friday afternoon watching a trial game played by the new men on the team. The scores were good and every one is expecting the team to be a hard one to beat. A challenge will appear to other teams as soon as the men get in good condition and get a little more practice. If the saying "practice makes perfect" is correct the team will be perfect as they are earnestly practicing.

Saturday January 1st being the beginning of a new year and a legal holiday all duty will be suspended and preparations are being made for a day of sport and a general good time throughout the Battalion, an elaborate menu is being prepared for the New Year's dinner.

A few invitations have been extended to attend the smoker to be given by Company H New Year's Eve. This is exclusively for the Company and a few invited guests and will if as successful as the smoker given by them Christmas night and an evening of enjoyment to all present.

Private Overfield Company H 20th Infantry was discharged from the post hospital as able to return to his duty and sent to his company Thursday morning.

Musicien Ferdinand, Co. G, 20th Infantry, was admitted to the post hospital Wednesday. He was only released from the hospital about ten days ago after being treated for deafness.

Private Mercer, Co. G, 20th Infantry, was entered on the sick report and sent to the Fort Shafter hospital Wednesday morning.

The weather has been so stormy for the past few days it has been necessary to again put the storm flag into use.

Relax Duty. There were no orders published in regard to suspending duty at the post during holidays, but through verbal orders there has been no duty at the post during this week except necessary guard and police. This has been a treat to the boys, as all were expecting to perform the usual garrison duties during the week. All the companies have been furnishing the details for guard each day, as there are no garrison or gymnasium drills, and garrison school is suspended until Jan. 6.

Target Shooting. The students of the Kamehameha School were not out to the Fort Shafter target range Wednesday, as it was entirely too rainy to do any shooting. The practice will probably begin again as soon as the weather permits.

Appointment. Private Falkenstein, Co. F, 20th Infantry, has been appointed corporal. Falkenstein is a good, steady man with several years service to his credit and well deserves the promotion that he has received, and will doubtless give perfect satisfaction as a non-commissioned officer.

Private Oakley, Co. F, 20th Infantry, has been relieved from duty as mounted messenger and will resume his duty with his company. A man will be detailed to fill his place in a few days.

New Records. Company E has purchased a few dozen new graphophone records and have some very fine selections among the lot.

Sergeant Demore, Co. H, 20th Infantry, was admitted to the post hospital Wednesday after being sick in quarters for a day. Nothing serious is anticipated from his present illness and he will probably be back with his company for duty in a short time.

Two more non-commissioned officers will be appointed in Co. F within the next week. The names of those to receive promotion are not known as yet.

Private Gardner, Co. H, 20th Infantry, has been detailed on special duty caring for the targets that are used on the range while the Kamehameha school students are using the range.

Private Henry, Co. G, 20th Infantry, was taken suddenly ill on Wednesday night about 7 o'clock and immediately taken to the post hospital. His illness proved to be liver trouble. Nothing serious is anticipated, and with the good medical treatment he will receive there is no doubt but that he will be back to his company for duty in a few days. He was only released from the hospital about ten days ago after being treated for deafness.

Water and sand began to flow today through the large pipe line from the sea to the duck ponds on the post. This line will bring the filling from the sea to the ponds and in a very short time the duck ponds of Fort De Russy will be no more.

To Duty. Sergeant O'Donnell, who was injured in the runaway of the ambulance of his survey detail some time ago, has returned from the hospital and is again with his detachment. He will have charge of the survey work from the Fort De Russy camp. Privates Finch, McElroy and Hummel have been sent to the hospital. Private McElroy was hurt yesterday by being kicked by one of the new horses of the post.
